NEW BENEDICTINE COLLEGE OPENED

Military School Begins Its First Session, With Bright Prospects.

HAS MILITARY DEPARTMENT

Students Instructed in What Will Be Expected in College Life.

Formal opening of the Benedictine College, just erected on Sheppard Street, took place yesterday morning. Classification of students took place on Monday.

Rev. P. Jerome addressed the students at yesterday's opening, speaking of the nature and work of the school. He explained the different laws and rules of the college, and what would be expected of the students. Most of the students entering are from the ages of fifteen to eighteen years, and are just fitted for the work they are to take up.

A thorough classical education is the object of the college, a four years' course for the present being installed. Father Jerome spoke at length upon the gentlemanly conduct expected at all times, and the requirements for promotion to higher classes.

Military Training.
Major Joseph LeMasurier, the military instructor, addressed the students at length in regard to the military department, outlining in general what the military would mean, insisting upon neatness and order, strict obedi-dience to rules, and the soldierly, military bearing of the cadets. This is the beginning of this college, and the students enrolled form the foundation classes of an institute which in a short time it is expected, will have great weight and influence in the city of Richmond.

The first and second year classes are established for the present, Rev. F. Charles, O. S. B. teaching the first and Rev. P. Jerome the second. The military exercises take place every morning from 7:50 to 9:15. In a few weeks the cadets will receive their military uniforms, the contract being let to a Richmond firm a few days ago.

FIRST SESSION BEGINS

NEW BENEDICTINE COLLEGE.

CECIL IS PLEASED WITH PROSPECTS

With Nucleus of Eight Old Men, Hampden-Sidney Will Have Strong Eleven.

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY'S SCHEDULE.
September 23—University of Virginia at Charlottesville.
September 30—V. P. L. at Blacksburg.

October 7—Medical College of Virginia, at Hampden-Sidney.
October 14—Washington and Lee University at Lexington.
October 21—University College of Medicine, at Hampden-Sidney.
October 28—Richmond College, at Richmond (championship).
November 11—Randolph-Macon College, at Richmond (championship).
November 18—William and Mary, at Hampden-Sidney (championship).

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Hampden-Sidney, Va., September 19.—In response to urgent appeals from both Coach Cecil and Captain Lewis, from thirty to forty men have appeared in uniform daily at Hampden-Sidney. Out of this squad eight were prominent men in last year's lineup. In addition to these there are many of last year's scrubs, also many fresh men who are showing up exceedingly well. Yet this is not all, for nearly every evening, practically the whole college, faculty as well as students, appear on the field to cheer the men in their daily scrimmages.

Coach Cecil, who has complete charge of the team, is rapidly rounding his men into line form. That he is happy, fast and hard worker, combined with other excellent qualities of a football player which made Cecil a star in the University of Virginia's line for three consecutive years, is very manifest, even in these few days of practice, for he has done unsurpassed work in the development of his squad.

The line from tackle to tackle probably will average about 170 pounds. The line men of last year's team who are back are Walker and Benedict, tackles, and Hundley, guard.

The other applicants for the line are Guthrie, Bolling, Profit, Oppenheim, Atkinson, Hoge, Warwick, McKee, Peters, Whaley.

At end Payne a veteran player, is at his post; Abuckley, Willis, Carrington, Worthington, Hodges are likely candidates.

The backfield at present looks light but fast. Saunders, an end of last season, has been holding down quarterback since the accident which befell Donnan, and rendered him unable to continue his fight for this position. Captain Lewis will hold down his accustomed place at full back.

Blanton, last year's quarterback, has been shifted to right half; Jones has been holding down left half back in the daily scrimmages. The other applicants for behind the line are C. Saunders, Gwynn, Byrne, McIlwaine, Rousseau.

With Coach Cecil and this material and this schedule which Manager Hundley has arranged, the prospects at Hampden-Sidney are exceedingly bright.

Prisoner Escapes From Officer.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Durham, N. C., September 19.—Considerable excitement on Roxboro Street this afternoon was caused by the escape of Henry Noble, a negro, from Officer Edgerton, who was bringing the prisoner in after a term on the Durham Road, to turn him over to the Orange county authorities for a crime he committed there. The chase shot at Noble, but failed to hit or capture him.

PONY CONTEST SOON MATTER OF HISTORY

The Last Ballot Must Be In at Noon To-Day, and Prize Winners Will Then Be Determined by the Count.

In a few more hours The Times-Dispatch Pony Contest will all be a thing of the past. At 12 o'clock noon to-day the ballot box closes, and all reserved votes and subscriptions must be turned in. As soon after that time as possible the final count will be made and the prize winners declared.

From the looks of things in the past few days it is easily seen that the real contenders for the pony outfits and other prizes have come to a full understanding of what sort of campaign they must do during the last few hours of the contest.

There is still time enough left in which to secure a few more subscriptions, and every moment should be taken advantage of. Contestants cannot afford to overlook any possible source that may yield a subscription, and there is a mighty short time left in which to go after them.

Yesterday might well be compared to the eve of a battle, and such it was, attended with all the preparation for the final fight, which is to be waged to-day. The contestants were all busy going after subscriptions, and not many of them put in their appearance at this office during the day. It is to-day that they will be coming in with subscriptions and reserved ballots in bunches.

No one can tell just what these last hours of the contest will bring forth. Nearly all of the contestants are withholding their efforts for this final struggle, and just what their strength may be cannot be determined until the last vote is in and the count made.

There is one thing sure—none of the contestants who are really in the race are going to let such an opportunity pass without putting forth the best that is in them. The prizes are well worth working for, and any one of them, from one of the pony outfits, the capital prizes, down to one of the gold watches, the third district prizes, is a prize that any one in the contest might well be proud to own.

As has been emphasized from the start, this contest is being conducted absolutely fair and square, and no contestant need have fear of anything being done that cannot be opened to the view and criticism of any other contestant or the public in general.

The contest has been a good-natured competition from the start, a gamble for subscriptions which count the winning votes, and a fight in which the one who works the hardest and accomplishes the most will win out. The only way votes can be secured is on bona-fide subscriptions, accompanied by the subscription price. Votes cannot be bought, and if some one else has more votes than you at the finish, it is because they have turned in more actual subscriptions than you. Absolutely, not one dollar will be accepted except under the above conditions.

There is not much that could be said at this late hour or not much advice that could be offered contestants, except to keep right after it up until the last hour. But be sure that all your votes and subscriptions are in on time. When the alarm clocks ring at 12 o'clock to-day it will all be over. This does not mean a minute before or a minute after, but at 12 sharp. Any votes arriving after that time will not be counted.

Now for the home stretch. Who will be the winners? That is what every one is waiting to know and what is to be decided at noon to-day.
